OTHER BRANDS TO CONSIDER

VICTORIA'S SECRET

Victoria's Secret and Bath and Body Works are both owned by L Brands. L Brands Chairman and Founder Lex Wexner, an ardent zionist and close friend of Epsetein, created the Wexner Foundation which has funded the training of Israeli leaders, funded pro-occupation propoganda in the US, and birthright Israeli trips for young American Jews. Victoria's Secret also sources its cloth from Delta Galil, an Israeli company with operations on illegal Israeli settlements.

MOROCCANOIL®

Moroccon Oil is an Israeli company that deliberately tries to obfuscate its origins. The companies products are manufactured in Israel but its difficult to confirm if they also operate on settlements. Organizers added Moroccan Oil to the BDS list in 2012.
